The Commissioners of the Chuckanut Community Forest Park District scheduled two Special District Board Meetings on August 29, 2022, the first at 10:15 AM and the second at 7:00 PM. The purpose and topics of these August 29, 2022, special meetings was to enable all the Commissioners to attend and potentially participate in the:

- City of Bellingham Parks and Recreation Committee Meeting at 10:15 AM topic: name to be given to 112 acre park of which 82-acre Chuckanut community forest is a part;
- The Bellingham City Council Meeting and Public Hearing at 7 PM topic: Draft Master Plan for the Hundred Acre Wood).

The Special Meeting at 10:15 AM of the City of Bellingham Parks and Recreation Committee was attended by the Commissioners of the Chuckanut Community Forest Park District but they did not participate in the meeting. You can watch the recording of the meeting or see the agenda at <https://meetings.cob.org/>.

The Special Meeting at 7:00 PM of the Bellingham City Council with the Public Hearing on the Draft Master Plan for the Hundred Acre Wood was attended by the Commissioners, four of which gave statements during the Hearing, along with a statement by the Attorney for the Chuckanut Community Forest Park District. Thirteen people total testified at the Public Hearing. Michael Lilliquist and Daniel Hammill of the City Council moved to recommend further discussion of the Master Plan to the Parks and Recreation Committee. You can watch a recording of the meeting and the Commissioners testimony at <https://meetings.cob.org/>.
